From:	Ehud Barak <ehbarak1@gmail.com>
To:	Gail Robinson <singingprof@yahoo.com>
CC:
Date:	Thu, 1/22/2015 8:46:43 AM
Subject:	Re: from cousin gail

Hi Gail
Thx. I've just landed from Shanghai.
It's too early here.
The Brith is today Thursday, Jan 22nd,430pm in the following address:
Dr. Jackson.
10a, David Elazar st.
Ra'anana. Israel.
Forward this to Max as MY invitation for him. It's about 45' drive from Tel Aviv.
Give him my iPhone 0506286600 as well.
He can call me later around noon to make sure he'd got it all.
The baby is the 1st one of my youngest daughter Anat.
Best
Ehud

Sent from my iPhone

On Jan 22, 2015, at 04:45, Gail Robinson <singingprof@yahoo.com> wrote:

> Dearest Ehud,
> Mazel Tov on the birth of your grandson! It seems like only yesterday I was having weekly Shabbat dinners with you at Stanford watching you play so lovingly with Michaela and Yael. And now you are a 'Zadie". I still have one of Michaela's "I love you" notes to me. I wonder which one of your girls is the mother? (Since the youngest was born after Stanford, I never got to meet her.) It would mean so much to me if Max could come to the Bris and meet them all. And you can imagine how terrible I will feel if Max leaves without meeting you and the cousins. (That was the reason he originally planned to stay after Birthright ended this past Sunday.) His cell number in Israel is: 972 52 635-5697.
> I hope you and your children and their families will visit us in San Diego. They are always welcome to stay.
> Much love and so much 'nachas' to you,
> Gail